

Guided Reading Activity

networks

Psychological Disorders

Lesson 5 Personality Disorders and Drug Addiction

16-5

Review Questions: Outlining

Directions: Read the lesson and complete the outline below. Refer to your textbook to fill in the blanks.

I. Personality Disorders

- A. Three features of people with personality disorders are distorted _____ patterns, problematic _____ response patterns, and _____ control problems.
- B. In the past, people who had antisocial personalities were referred to as _____ or _____.
- C. According to different theories, people with antisocial personality disorder might be imitating _____, lacked _____ as children, or have a dysfunction of _____.
- D. A person with callous-unemotional traits (CU) is unable to feel _____ or _____.
- E. CU traits are far more common in _____ than in _____.

II. Drug Addiction

- A. Drug use can progress from a psychological _____ to a physical _____.
- B. A person develops a(n) _____ for a drug, so it takes an increasing amount of the drug to achieve the same effect.
- C. During _____ the mind and body revolt but finally get used to the absence of a drug.
- D. As a drug, many people think alcohol is a(n) _____ but it is actually a(n) _____.
- E. According to the Disease Model of Alcoholism, in Stage II a person engages in _____ drinking, in Stage III a person engages in _____ to justify drinking, and in Stage IV drinking becomes _____.
- F. To seek help, alcoholics can go to _____, family members and friends of alcoholics can go to _____, and young people affected by someone's alcoholism can go to _____.

Guided Reading Activity cont.

Psychological Disorders

Summary and Reflection

Directions: Summarize the main ideas of this lesson by answering the question below.

What effect does a person with an antisocial personality or who suffers from drug or alcohol addiction have on other people?
