

Guided Reading Activity

19-1

networks*Group Interaction*Lesson 1 *Group BehaviorReview Questions: Outlining*Directions: Read the lesson and complete the outline below. Refer to your textbook to fill in the blanks.I. Groups

- A. In a(n) _____ group, people interact daily; in a larger _____ group, relationships are more impersonal.
- B. Unlike a group, in an aggregate, people _____ but do not _____.
- C. Interdependence occurs when an action by one member of a group _____.
- D. Communication that is _____ declares a person's membership in a group, whereas _____ communication is intended for the group members themselves.
- E. Groups are formed because their members share goals that no _____ could do _____.

II. How Groups Are Held Together

- A. Shared attitudes and standards affect a group's _____, or ability to hold together.
- B. Even though a norm is not a rigid law, a group member who violates an important norm may endure a severe _____ or even be _____ from the group.
- C. A group's ideology may provide people with new ways to look at themselves, _____ events, set new _____, and find ways to _____.
- D. Two factors that strengthen group commitment are _____, such as enduring hardship, and _____, such as active decision-making.

III. Social Facilitation and Interaction

- A. Group structure depends on personal _____ between individual members, the _____ of each member in a particular social dimension, and the _____ or behavior expected of the member.
- B. To avoid group polarization and groupthink, group leaders should avoid _____, encourage _____, and make sure _____ are expressed and discussed.
- C. Communication patterns can be used to discover the _____ of a group.

Guided Reading Activity cont.

Group Interaction

- D. When people view images of unrealistic happiness on social networking sites, they often feel _____.

- E. According to one leadership model, a leader concerned only with _____ stresses obedience, whereas one concerned with _____ will create a friendly atmosphere for workers.

Summary and Reflection

Directions: Describe at least three factors that would be important for a group's members to be interdependent, communicate well, and take part equally in the decision-making process.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---