

Guided Reading Activity

19-3

networksGroup Interaction*Lesson 3 *Conflict and CooperationReview Questions: Identifying Supporting Details

Directions: Read each main idea. Use your textbook to supply the details that support or explain each main idea.

Main Idea A: Physical, emotional, and cognitive factors can cause aggressive behavior, which can lead to violence and inflict serious harm.

- Detail: Aggression can be any _____ behavior that can cause _____, whereas assertiveness is _____ behavior.
- Detail: _____ is a neurotransmitter that influences a person's aggressive behavior.
- Detail: Children are likely to learn aggressive behavior by imitating their _____ or by _____ in the media.
- Detail: The best predictor of aggressive behavior in an adult is if he or she were a(n) _____.
- Detail: The frustration-aggression hypothesis fails to note that _____.
- Detail: Bullying is a(n) _____ of power, where the bully may use _____, _____, or _____ ways to hurt his or her victim.
- Detail: People can be taught to control aggression by learning how to _____ frustrations and react to _____ in ways that are not violent.

Main Idea B: Competition can cause group members to see other groups as threats, resulting in aggressive behavior.

- Detail: The Robbers Cave experiment showed that two groups could develop hostility to each other when placed in _____, but the hostility could be eliminated through _____.
- Detail: Police have identified three types of gangs: _____ gangs, which often have leaders who are emotionally unstable; _____ gangs, which hang out in a specific location; and _____ gangs, which revolve around monetary gain.

Guided Reading Activity cont.

Group Interaction

Main Idea C: Acts of altruism, or helping others, can be affected when group behavior interferes.

1. Detail: When others are around, you are more likely to help a person if you are in the presence of a(n) _____, you are _____ with the person who needs help, or you know what _____ is required.

2. Detail: When people follow individualistic behavior, they act as _____ and obey their _____.

Summary and Reflection

Directions: Summarize the main ideas of this lesson by answering the question below.

How might participation in group situations lead to conflict, aggression, and a loss of altruism?
