

13-3 B

fallout the radiation left over after a nuclear blast (page 649)

fallout shelter shelter built to protect against fallout (page 649)

DRAWING FROM EXPERIENCE

Does your school conduct practice drills for what to do in certain emergencies? What are the emergencies for which you have these drills?

The last section explained the steps the United States took to contain communism abroad. This section describes how the fear of communism affected Americans at home.

ORGANIZING YOUR THOUGHTS

Use the diagram below to help you take notes. In the United States, people's fear of communism resulted in the Red Scare. In the diagram, list the government's responses to the Red Scare.

California History-Social Science Standards
11.8 Students analyze the economic boom and social transformation of post-World War II America.
11.9 Students analyze the U.S. foreign policy since World War II.
Focuses on: 11.8.7, 11.8.8, 11.9.3, 11.9.4

