

★ Guided Reading Activity 4-3

DIRECTIONS: Identifying Supporting Details Read each main idea. Use your textbook to supply the details that support or explain each main idea.

✱ Main Idea: Theodore Roosevelt went from governor of New York to president in a few short years and supported the country's rise to a world power.

1. Detail: The election of _____ once again pitted President William McKinley against William Jennings Bryan.

2. Detail: Bryan attacked the Republicans for their support of _____, and McKinley focused on the country's _____.

3. Detail: Roosevelt became president upon the assassination of President McKinley by _____ on September 6, 1901.

4. Detail: Roosevelt believed that the United States had a duty to shape the _____.

✱ Main Idea: The United States pursued an Open Door policy in China to allow all nations access to China's markets.

5. Detail: The vast Chinese markets excited American business leaders, especially those in the _____, _____, and _____ industries.

6. Detail: In the 1894 war between China and Japan over _____, Japan easily defeated China and gained for itself some territory in _____.

7. Detail: The war showed that Japan had successfully adopted _____ and _____.

8. Detail: _____ forced Japan to give its newly acquired territory back to China, then demanded that China lease the territory to _____.

9. Detail: The _____ of the United States proclaimed that all countries should be allowed to trade with China.

✱ Main Idea: Theodore Roosevelt pushed for construction of the Panama Canal and declared the intent of the United States to act as a police force in Latin America.

10. Detail: In 1907 Roosevelt sent 16 U.S. Navy battleships, known as the _____, around the world to show the nation's military might.

11. Detail: Roosevelt and others viewed the construction of a canal through _____ as vital to American power in the world.

12. Detail: The _____ to the Monroe Doctrine said that the United States would intervene in Latin American affairs when necessary to maintain economic and political stability in the Western Hemisphere.

4-3A

RESULTS

Section Graphic Organizer Transparency 4-3

The American Vision: Modern Times
Chapter 4: Becoming a World Power,
1872-1912

B

