

★ Reteaching Activity 18

The Politics of Protest, 1960–1980

Protest movements grew during the 1960s. Students, farmworkers, women, Native Americans, African Americans, Hispanic Americans—all petitioned for their rights.

DIRECTIONS: Complete the chart by providing the missing information about the protest groups. Then state the main achievement(s) of each group. The first one has been completed for you.

 Protest Groups
	Organization, Leader, and Targeted Group	Achievement(s)
1.	Organization: Free Speech Movement Leader: Mario Savio and others at Berkeley Targeted Group: College students/youth	The Supreme Court validated the students' rights to freedom of speech and assembly under the Civil Rights Act.
2.	Organization: Leader: Betty Friedan Targeted Group:
3.	Organization: AIM (American Indian Movement) Leaders: Vernon and Clyde Bellecourt Targeted Group:
4.	Organization: Leader: Jesse Jackson Targeted Group:
5.	Organization: UFW (United Farm Workers) Leader: Targeted Group:
6.	Organization: Book— Silent Spring Leader: Targeted Group: American public
7.	Organization: Book— Unsafe at Any Speed Leader: Targeted Group:	